Fishing Fact and Fancies.

A new fishing schooner measuring 36 tons has been launched at Shelburne, N. S., for Capt. Edward Dempsey of Herring Cove, who will command her.

Herring Plenty at Nova Scotia.

Word received from various places along the Nova Scotia coast report herring having struck in and that good hauls were being made in nets and traps. Everything indicates that the fall catch of herring in provincial waters will be larger than for many years.

Fine Halibut Fare.

Sch. Corona, Capt. Augustus Peterson, arrived from the Funks yesterday afternoon with a fine fare of 50,000 pounds of halibut. He reports bad weather on the bank recently.

Big Shack Fare.

Sch. Slade Gorton, Capt. George Heckman, is in from LaHave bank this morning with a big shack fare, 150,000 pounds of fresh mixed fish.

LARGE BODY OF MACKEREL.

Is Reported South S. E.
From Mount Desert Rock.

SEVERAL SEINERS MADE HAULS.

Sch. Georgie Willard Shipping
Fare From Boothbay.

A despatch to the TIMES from S. Nickerson & Sons, Boothbay Harbor, this afternoon is as follows:

Sch. Georgie Willard shipping 50 barrels fresh mackerel from here today. Fish caught yesterday south southeast Mount Desert Rock, fifteen miles. Schs. Blanche Irving, Priscilla Smith and Norumbega caught fish at same time. Large body of fish reported there.

This is good news, and coming from so reliable a source is received with considerable satisfaction. With it comes the hope that the body of mackerel may stay on the Maine coast for a while and that the seiners may get good hauls.

LOOKS BRIGHTER.

Mackerel News From All Points
Much Improved.

Two Good Fares Arrived at T
Wharf Today.

The encouraging mackerel news of a large body of fish off Mt. Desert Rock, as published correctly only in yesterday's TIMES was the theme of much conversation and was confirmed this morning by the arrival of two good trips at Boston.

At Portland yesterday sch. Nourmahal with 70 barrels of salt mackerel and Saladin with 230 barrels salt mackerel, were in for harbor. Several other seiners were there and some of them got small schools the night before off Cape Elizabeth.

Sch. Navahoe, Capt. Martin Welch, is at Boston this morning from the Maine Coast, with a fine trip, 16,000 fresh mackerel. As the fish brought the big price of 15 cents apiece, Capt. Welch will make a fine stock.

Sch. Nettie Franklin of Chatham, Capt. Cahoon, is also at Boston today with 60 barrels of salt mackerel and 60 barrels of fresh mackerel.

Reports from the seiners at Boston say that 40 sail of mackerel catchers were on the fish when they showed Tuesday off Mount Desert Rock and all got hauls of from 20 to 60 barrels and a few did better than that.

Off Race Point Monday, more mackerel were seen than at any time this year. Steamers A. B. Nickerson and Vigilant were there, but the fish were wild and they could do nothing with them.

Mackerel were reported schooling yesterday off Montauk Point.

Fishing steamers Alice M. Jacobs and F. S. Willard, and schs. Smuggler, Emerald, Hiram Lowell, Annie M. Parker, Golden Hope, Keareage, Victor and Nourmahal were at Portland on Tuesday.
